OFF THE TOP

Back to the Future, or Vice Versa

by Joseph W. Bean

Over the past few years, I have been exploring every Drummer reader to do something—from each according to his ability—to help secure the civil rights of gay people, leatherfolk, and other sexual minorities. If, for the moment, I turn my attention away from that subject, despite a currently raging police war on us across the US and around the world, you must not think I have given up. Not a bit. We are still human and citizens of purportedly elected governments, and still due the full range of rights and protections our governments are constituted to defend and provide.

Nonetheless, it is time we looked a little closer to home, and did a thorough cleaning of a special sort. We need to re-establish the safety of local, national, and world-wide networking among leathermen, to re-confirm the values of honesty, integrity, and mutual protection, and to assert the importance of the brotherhood of leathermen.

Once upon a time, so recently that I was alive and sexual and new to the SM scene, the traditions of the gay male leather community were taut and invariable. To get in was an achieved recognition, to get to know the respected leaders of the community was an honor accorded by those closest to the leaders to those who had proven their seriousness and trustworthiness, and to advance in respect within the community was primarily a function of frank and honest dealings with the men of your leather/SM circle over time.

In the past 15-20 years, leathermen have become impatient with these slow-acting traditions. We have let our well-founded eagerness to be "accepted" by at least a certain range of the outside "public" to un-do the carefully constructed separateness in which leather culture could rightly claim to be founded in trust, integrity, and genuine mutual acquaintance. We have let our taste for "fresh meat" (or, more generously, our willingness to share) overpower our need to monitor our own community and our need to be able to close ranks against those who (even if leather-clad) are the enemies of our values. And, perhaps worst of all, by rejecting our traditions,

If we can achieve this move forward, we will be all the more prepared to numbers for our rights in the larger world.

we have cast out of our community the elders we ought to revere.

The losses are immeasurable. All the negotiating of scenes, all the insuring of safety, all the tests of sanity, and all the constantly re-asserted claims of consensuality can only—at best—echo the sense of a safe, loving fraternity of like-minded men we once had.

It all leaves me, on the one hand, nostalgic for the way things were. But I know that once a door is opened, it is not possible to close it and recapture an atmosphere that has blown away.

So, on the other hand, I am left wondering what can be done now to establish for the future a leather community with respectable values, with cultural habits that amount to cohesion and mutual support. I want our community to be a population which, by whatever means, is safe from dishonesty within and safer than the current one from "enemy" attacks.

What, I ask myself, could instill in leathermen again the high regard for honest interaction we once relied on so comfortably?

I don't know the answer to this question. You probably don't either. In fact, if anyone has a workable answer, he is probably to be found among the leathermen over 65 who are so cruelly marginalized in our rush-to-the-future present culture. The answer, or at least the part of it we're most sorely lacking today, must have to do with how the strict value-systems of the original leather community were first established in the 1940s and '50s when proud SM players, tired of at-your-own-risk encounters, invented the modern leather/SM fetish world view.

Getting a value-honoring, honesty-valuing leather community going again is something I want to think about, something I'm ready to work on, something I'm willing to live for. How about you? I'd really like to hear/read your thoughts and feelings and plans.

If we can achieve this move forward into a future that recaptures what was most valuable in our past, we will be all the more prepared to stand up in reliable numbers for our rights in the larger world. We will be more able to depend on one another for the mutual support that makes a group a community. We will be more ready to incorporate and appreciate new ideas, new people, and the new pressures the future will deliver into our community.

CAUTION

Every decision a person makes, including the decision to get out of bed in the morning, has some degree of risk associated with it. We strongly believe that each competent adult must set for themselves the level of risk he or she is willing to accept. Some avoid crossing streets in heavy traffic—others stunt-ride motorcycles without a helmet. However, to intelligently confront and accept risk, a person must understand the dangers. While Drummer hopes to educate its readers on a wide variety of topics, its main purpose is to entertain! Works of fiction presented in this magazine are just that—fiction! They are not in any way intended to suggest or describe activities that anyone should—or often could—actually do. They are meant for entertainment only. In other than fictional pieces, we will emphasize safe sex with respect to contagious diseases, and safe and sane behavior with respect to all activities, and will try to point out all activities which deviate from recognized safe-sex and safe-and-sane play activities. MALE CALL

MARCH ON WASHINGTON

Editor's Note: The letter below was written in September, well before the Presidential election. It's continued relevance is explained in the text. No, it is not just continued relevance, in a way it is a matter of increased importance. We must not believe that winning one battle changes the fact that we are at war, or that our enemies still exist and continue to organize for further attacks.

It would be a sad day on April 25, 1993, if people chose not to go to the March on Washington simply because Bill Clinton won the big contest. No one person can save the day, especially the President. I, of course, am assuming that 99.9% of America's gays and lesbians would prefer Bill Clinton over George Bush.

The Following is a collection of statements in the official Republican Platform for 1992, entitled "The Vision Shared—Uniting Our Family, Our Country, Our World." They are not words that will disappear if Bush should not be re-elected. They are thought out statements reflecting the opinions of millions of Americans, day in and day out.

"We encourage State legislatures to enact legislation which makes it a criminal act to knowingly transmit the AIDS virus. We will seek to ensure that medical personnel, and the people who trust in their care, will be protected against infection.

"This disease also challenges America scientifically. We must succeed in slowing the epidemic's spread. The administration has thus placed great emphasis on a variety of prevention efforts to do so. We must recognize, also, that prevention is linked ultimately to personal responsibility and moral behavior. We reject the notion that distribution of clean needles and condoms are the solution to stopping the spread of AIDS. Education designed to curb the spread of this disease should stress marital fidelity, abstinence, and a drug-free lifestyle.

"We also stand united with those private organizations, such as the Boy Scouts of America, who are defending decency in fulfillment of their own moral responsibilities. We reject the irresponsible position of those corporations who have cut off contributions to such organizations because of their courageous stand for family values. Moreover, we oppose efforts by the Democratic Party to include sexual preference as a protected minority receiving preferential status under civil rights statutes at the federal, state, or local level.

"We deplore the blatant political bias of the government-sponsored radio and television networks. It is especially outrageous that taxpayers are now forced to underwrite this biased broadcasting through the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.

"Unlike the Democratic Party and its candidate, we support the continued exclusion of homosexuals from the military as a matter of good order and discipline."

DISCIPLINE? Wake up and smell the rawhide!

There are millions of Americans sharing these views. They will remain if Clinton wins, and they will get louder.

Enough said?

Brian B/NYC

Neither Drummer nor any of the gay leather/SM press, as it seems to me, has been as active as we need to be in promoting the March on Washington. Fortunately, here is another opportunity for me to encourage your participation, not only as a gay man or woman, but also as a leather/SM/fetish person. Neither Bill Clinton as president nor Madonna as spokesperson-popularizer is going to "save the day" for us. We have to do the job for ourselves, each of us as much and as powerfully as possible.

The March on Washington for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual Equal Rights and Liberation will take place on April 25, 1993, and there are many ways every one of us can support that effort. Obviously, the first and most significant way to help is to be there and be counted. And you can do that in leather (or not) as a member of the SM/Leather contingent of the March.

You can contribute money to the needs of the March and/or to the needs specifically of the SM/Leather contingent. You can endorse the purposes of the March by lending your name or arranging for your club or organization to do so. And, whether you are able to be in Washington for the March or not, you can talk to others, and help them understand that the election did not obviate the need for an impressive March on Washington.

A reminder, quoting from the November-December edition of the March newsletter: The focuses of the march, supported by a broad spectrum of the lesbian and gay community, include the repeal of anti-sodomy laws and all laws restricting private sexual expression between consenting adults, passage of a Gay and Lesbian Civil Rights Bill, a genuine national commitment to the fight against AIDS, the right to control our own bodies, and end to attempts to censor images of gays and lesbians, and the call for an executive order banning anti-gay discrimination in the government, including in the military.

In addition to the march (Sunday) and the one-day conference planned by the SM/Leather contingent (Saturday), there will be other events in Washington you might want to participate in. These include several days of pre-march lobbying, carefully organized civil disobedience, a display of the AIDS memorial quilt, and many other related events. For information (including child care), call 800/832-2889; for lobbying info, call Shannon at 202/332-6483.

Hotel rooms at special rates have been reserved for the SM/Leather/fetish contingent in convenient downtown DC hotels. Reservations should be made as soon as possible by calling Quality Hotel at 800/368-5689, Holiday Inn at 202/296-2100, Guest Quarters at 202/785-2000, and the Inn at Foggy Bottom at 800/462-4455.

The members of the National Coordinating Committee of the SM/Leather Contingent are D Cannon, J. C. Collins, Ivo Domingues Jr., Barry Douglas, Jan Hall, Shannon Kennedy, Jan Lyon, Leon McGowen, and Vance Reger. Any of them can answer your questions. Or, you can write to the following which is one of the regional addresses of the contingent: SMLC, PO Box 965, South San Francisco, CA 94083-0965.

CARRIED AWAY

by David Stein

Illustrated for Drummer by Burton Clarke

© 1992 by David Stein. All rights reserved. This is the first of three chapters to be excerpted from Carried Away, a novel in progress to be published by the Outbound Press, New York, publishers of Bound & Gagged magazine.

CHAPTER ONE

It was nine o'clock on the Tuesday night after Labor Day, I was horny as hell, and I wasn't going to take it anymore! I could have made do with some porn and my own hand, but I decided to go try my chances at a leather bar. Of course I went to the Spike. On Fridays and Saturdays, jammed with preppies and jocks and club kids unfazed by the ear-shattering music, it was barely a leather bar at all. But on a Tuesday, the Spike was the only place in New York likely to have what I was looking for.

I wasn't due back at work until Thursday, so if I lucked out and went home with someone equally unencumbered, we wouldn't have to rush. I made the rounds of the bar, chatting with the guys I knew, giving high-voltage smiles to those I would have liked to know, trying not to seem desperate to get laid. Just a casual night out with the tribe. Just soaking in the atmosphere. Just struttin' my stuff with the other kinky boys. Yeah, sure.

I was dressed pretty casual, too, given the still-warm weather—no leather showing except a vest, belt, Army boots, and a braided-leather bolo tie, which was mostly covered by my gray T-shirt. (The tight shirt also covered my tit rings, but it rather emphasized their profile.) The tie wasn't all that obvious a signal. Oh, no. Nor was the triple loop of cotton rope that just happened to be circling my right bicep. And, of course, I had both gray and black hankies sticking out of the right back pocket of my jeans—to keep my keys company. You'd have had to get me somewhere a little more private to see the leather cock-and-ball harness I had on, though it did help insure that I showed a basket. (I have the kind of cock that shrivels up when I'm not aroused, but it's a very respectable seven inches erect.) I left my wavy blond hair uncovered—why hide one of my best assets?

In my first turn around the room I had everyone sized up, measured out, and inventoried: who was hot, who was not; who might be looking for what I had to offer; who was already taken and who might be available; who it was better to stay away from; who was hunting and who was just window shopping.

The advantage of going out on a weeknight is that the bar's not too crowded to circulate easily; the disadvantage is that the pickings can be slim. On the other hand, you only need to snare one—one at a time, anyway. And tonight I certainly spotted "the one" right away.

I actually had a passing acquaintance with him already from GMSMA and the New York Bondage Club. His name was Terry, a moniker I've always had a weakness for (childhood memories of Terry and the Pirates comics, perhaps?). Tonight he was in a full New York City Highway Patrol uniform. Grrr! One of my fondest uniform fantasies come to life.

If you don't live in the city, or aren't a sucker for cops (pun intended), you may not know that our Police Department even has a Highway Patrol division, let alone that on a halfway decent body its uniform is one of the sexiest outfits ever created—and a total anachronism. Patrol officers wear thigh-hugging blue-serge pants fitted into knee-high black police boots, the kind that lace only at the instep and the top. Their blue uniform shirts are normally completely covered by three-quarter-length double-breasted black leather coats cinched at the waist by Sam Browne belts. Their handcuff cases ride neatly centered in the back of their belts, and leather holster flaps cover their gun butts.

Their headgear is the standard eight-sided navy-blue police cap, except that most of the officers in the division remove the wire inside the cap to eliminate the crisp angles. The result looks more like a soft chauffeur's cap or a 1920's police cap than today's regulation style. What makes it all even more anachronistic is that these guys ride around in cars, not on horses or motorcycles; there's no real reason for the boots and leather coats, but oh, how they howled when the Department tried to take them away! Fortunately, they won the right to keep them.

Terry wore the Highway Patrol gear (including the cap and the regulation gray leather gloves) with self-assurance and the ease of familiarity, and certainly nothing about him was at odds with the persona he was projecting. Quite the contrary: He was tall (half a head over my 5' 9"), chunky, clean-cut, and, like me, old enough to have been around the block a few times. His plain features might not have earned him a place in most pinup collections, but his face was full of character. A trim pepper-and-salt moustache topped a warm smile, and his eyes held not a hint of guile, only a trace of amusement at the passing scene.

I had watched him work at Bondage Club nights and GMSMA demos, and I swear I could almost hear him whistling as he carefully trussed his partner into delirious immobility. He knew the classic moves, all right, but his specialty seemed to be the off-center variation—like putting a guy in a complicated, full-body rope harness, then suspending him from a dozen rubber bungee cords hooked into the ropes. Hanging in suspension is one thing, but bouncing?

Terry had a good rep, so far as I knew—no traumatized tricks or vengeful ex-lovers strewn in his wake, just a lot of satisfied bottoms eager for return engagements. It was a wonder he stayed single. I wasn't looking for a lover, or any long-term entanglements, but I had always liked his looks and style, and he'd shown signs that he wouldn't mind making it with me. There was always something—usually someone—in the way, however. It seemed that every time we ran into each other, he was already with someone else, or I was.

Although he'd been talking with a couple of other guys when I came in this time, by my second turn around the bar he was standing alone by the wall near the corner door, working on a soda and surveying the crowd. I casually walked over and stood next to him, trying not to seem too eager.

"Hi, how ya' doin'?" I said after a decent interval.

"Can't complain," he responded in a rich bass-baritone. His eyes raked me over, head to foot, and he turned himself slightly to face me. My heart thumped. Could this be the night we finally get together?

"You by yourself?" I asked. "Usually you have someone in tow."

"Not tonight—yet," he said. "How about you, Matt? It is Matt, isn't it?"

"Yes, sir," I said, giving him my biggest smile, pleased he'd remembered my name. "Matt Stone, at your service."

"Maybe I'll take you up on that," he said, his eyes twinkling and a suggestive half smile on his face. I hoped he was already thinking about evil things to do with me! He finished his soda and set the empty can down.

"May I get you another...sir?" When I added the honorific he smiled and nodded. I felt like I was walking on eggs as I went over to the bar and got his soda. I imagined his eyes following me every step of the way, evaluating me.

After I brought it back I ventured a compliment on his uniform. "I wouldn't mind being arrested by a cop who looks as hot as you do, sir."

"Being arrested is just the first step," he said, setting the soda down and moving a little closer. "Are you ready for what comes afterward?"

"That depends," I told him. "I don't know about the third degree, sir. Besides, you don't have to torture me to get me to talk—more the reverse! But a spell of close confinement and discipline would go down real easy right now—especially since I don't have to go to work tomorrow."

"How close do you want it, boy?" No smile now, and his voice had dropped half an octave. He stood directly in front of me and leaned into the wall, trapping me between his powerful arms.

"As close as you can make it, sir," I replied firmly (Go for it! I told myself), respectfully lowering my gaze. My cock responded eagerly as we slipped deeper into the time-honored roles.

"Turn around," he growled, stepping away slightly. "Put your hands up on the wall and spread your legs." I complied, but not fast enough, apparently, for he grabbed me by the back of the neck and pushed my face against the wall—not hard enough to do any damage, but firm, real firm.

"Hold it there," he said, then kicked my legs apart a little more. His gloved hands frisked me thoroughly—very thoroughly. My nipples each got a sharp pinch, and he fingered and lightly tugged on the rings in them—I let out a low hiss in response. When he got to my crotch, he groped hard enough that I'm sure he noticed the cock harness. Or at least my hard-on. But he didn't say anything about it, just finished patting down my legs.

Then he pulled my right arm down and behind me. I felt cold metal on my wrist and heard the clicking of ratchets—a magic sound to us handcuff freaks. Terry expertly secured my left wrist as well, keeping my palms out (standard police handcuffing technique), and set the locks. I shivered a little in excitement, and maybe a tiny edge of fear: I was in custody for sure. I had hoped to persuade him to take me home, but I didn't expect him to start anything here in the bar. I was sure other guys must be watching—green with envy, probably. Or just appreciating my captor's skill and style.

Terry jerked me roughly around so I was facing him and ordered me to kneel. This is going very fast, I thought as my head came level with the buckle of his Sam Brown belt. Then he slipped a chain around my neck and pulled it up snug on the end of a leash, holding the leather loop at the end in his right hand. Are we still in the Spike, I wondered, or have we somehow time-slipped back to the Mineshaft? On the other hand, why not? We aren't having sex, exactly—this is still foreplay.

Terry seated himself on the low bench under the bulletin board and stretched out his legs.

"Clean 'em," he ordered, pulling down on the leash to bring my head closer to his boots. I shuffled around and bent over all the way, my jeans pulling tight on my up-turned ass, my cuffed hands resting on my vest in the small of my back. I licked my lips and touched my mouth to both of Terry's boots, tasting them and inhaling the scent before beginning boot worship in earnest. They were pretty clean already, of course; dirty boots just wouldn't have worked with his outfit. But I slobbered over them with enthusiasm, occasionally brushing my clean-shaven cheeks along their glossy smoothness. When I did the toes I pressed my tongue down as hard as I could, so he could feel me through the leather.

Out of the corner of my eye I noticed that we had attracted a small audience. One of the onlookers actually asked Terry about the ritual he was witnessing. I caught the words "humiliation...public...bootlicking..."

"Why don't we ask him?" I heard Terry say, and then he pulled my head up off his boots so I could look at him.

"The man wants to know if you feel humiliated, boy, licking my boots in public." He looked like he was having trouble suppressing a smile.

"Humiliated, sir?" I asked with a look of bewilderment. "Why should I be humiliated? It's an honor to lick your boots, sir." And I enjoy it, asshole, I wanted to say to the guy whose question had interrupted us. I couldn't see his reaction, but I heard someone quickly walk away behind me.

"Back to work, then," Terry said, grinning openly now, and let the leash go slack again. I returned to his boots, finishing up in front and twisting myself around to get at the backs.

He seemed to be in no hurry, and though I was so excited I could have shot my load in seconds if I'd been able to stroke my hair-trigger cock, I savored my sensations and feelings as, bound at his feet, I serviced his boots—the boots of a cop (if only in fantasy), the boots of a formidable topman, the boots of a man I respected and lusted after. Humiliation wasn't what I was feeling, but rather exhilaration. Although I already ached a little from

I asked with

be humiliated?

my crouching position and the constriction of my arms, I felt that I wanted this scene—exactly as it was—to continue forever. Just lick and lick, sniff and rub, and lick again, world without end, amen.

"That's enough, boy," Terry said finally and stood up, then pulled me to my feet and led me to a dark corner of the bar for a little privacy. He turned me so my back was against his chest. That put my cuffed hands very near his crotch, and I tried to feel him up under his leather police coat. As near as I could tell, he had a hard-on, too, and he made no objection to my explorations. He pulled my T-shirt out of my jeans and went exploring on his own, running his hands over my furry chest and down along my abs toward my crotch, making me glad for all those boring hours I put in at the gym. The leash chain jingled slightly as the hand holding it moved possessively over my body.

He held me tight against his chest as he pinched and pulled my tits more vigorously. I arched my head back and moaned as the pain increased, though it was never too much to bear. When he suddenly licked my neck and ears, rasping his mustache along my skin, I melted.

"Ahhh, shit, sir. What you're doing to me.... Please take me home with you, sir." I was in heat, babbling.

"You need it bad, don't you, boy?" he whispered into my ear, continuing to play my tits with his hands while his words played with my head. I sure did need it bad. I hadn't had a really satisfying SM or bondage scene in too long—just routine rough-and-tumble in bed with kinky embellishments. I wanted much more, and it seemed Terry did, too.

"I could do anything to you I wanted, couldn't I?" he crooned. "Twist you up like a pretzel.... Cuff you spreadeagled against a cell door and whip your ass and back.... Plug your butt and your mouth.... Load you down with superheavy irons on your wrists and ankles and an iron collar around your neck and chain you to the wall.... Stick a catheter up your cock and feed you your own piss from a tube.... Stuff you in a mail bag and toss you in a closet....Cover your body with a plaster cast and hang you up to dry....Hang you upside down by your boots and use you as a punching bag....Hogtie you and gag you with a boot....Strap you to a post and paddle your ass till it's cherry-red....Tie you down to the end of my bed for a foot pillow....Lace you tight into an eyeless, mouthless leather hood, strap you into a leatherstraitjacket, put on a leather leg sack, and let you stew for a few hours—or days."

This precisely modulated recitation was accompanied by continual stimulation of my tits and half-painful kneading of my chest and shoulder muscles as well as frequent grabs at my swollen, harnessed cock and balls. It was as if he kept checking my reaction to his threats (promises?) on my handy peter meter. My cock's unflagging stiffness must have eliminated any ambiguity left by my subverbal counterpoint of hisses and moans.

"I could fuck your face.... Fuck your ass.... Use you any way I please, isn't that right?... Just as long as you're bound.... Just as long as you can't resist.... Anything I want—as long as there's no damage or unsafe sex." My sense of self-preservation was still alert enough to notice—and appreciate—the reassuring qualifications.

Finally, "That's what you want, isn't it? That's what this boy needs, doesn't he?" The questions were punctuated by really vicious twists on my nipples.

"Yes, sir," I exhaled. "Yes, sir! Yessir!" What else could I say? He had my number, all right.

"Let's go," he said, and started to walk off toward the door. The leash chain yanked at my neck before I recovered my wits enough to follow him. I was still cuffed, of course, but if I wondered what a cab driver might make of a highway cop taking a restrained prisoner home at the end of a leash, I was sufficiently enthralled not to worry about it. New York cabbies have seen everything, anyway.

What was it I used to advise novice bottoms—never get tied up on the first date? So much easier to give advice than to take it! But another good piece of advice I had been given early on in my SM career was to follow my gut feelings, and all my instincts, as well as what I knew about Terry from seeing him around and watching him work at public events, told me to trust him.

As it turned out, we didn't need a cab. Terry had a car parked on a side street a block away. He probably doesn't live in Manhattan, I thought. Cuffed as I was, I expected him to open the passenger side for me, but what he opened instead was the trunk. I could see a pile of blankets and rugs inside. He motioned me toward the opening.

"Get in," he ordered when I hesitated.

A little shocked, maybe a little afraid, I looked straight at him. I don't know what I expected to see, but he seemed as desirable as ever, as much a fantasy come to life as I could ever hope for.

"I'll wedge you in so you won't roll around," he said. There was the ghost of a smile on his lips, as if he were amused at my wariness. I fought my own impulse to surrender. What kind of a man takes tricks home from a bar in his car trunk? I wondered. I guess the same kind that leads 'em down the street on a leash.

When I still hesitated, he said, sternly now, "Come on, boy, get in. Don't keep me waiting anymore, unless you want to stay here and go home alone." The last thing I wanted! I gave in.

"Okay, sir. I'm sorry, sir," I said, letting my stiff cock lead me toward the trunk opening. I still wasn't sure just how I was supposed to get in, not being able to use my hands, but as soon as he saw me trying to comply, he moved to help me, and between us I managed to tumble into the trunk.

Terry arranged the padding so I was both secure and fairly comfortable, lying on my side with my cuffed arms cushioned by a rug folded against my back and a thick, doubled-over blanket under my head. Terry unclipped the leash from the chain around my neck but left the chain. He gently brushed my face and briefly gave me a couple of leather-gloved fingers to suck, then wished me a pleasant trip and shut the lid.

The thunk as it closed seemed very final. Now I'm really committed, I thought. No backing out now. It was perfectly black inside the trunk, and there was a faintly musty smell, along with just a whiff of gasoline—not really unpleasant. Once the car started moving I really appreciated the padding Terry had arranged for me. I still felt every jolt from the city's perpetually potholed streets, but I don't think they left bruises. After a while, however, the ride became smoother, and I started to nod off. I replayed in my mind every moment of our encounter so far, straining to detect a false note or a reasonable cause for concern. All I could find was more reason to admire Terry's skill in reading me and pushing my erotic buttons. I had had an aching hard-on for the last hour. I was still horny as hell, but now someone else was going to take care of that; all I had to do was follow his orders. I only hope Prince Charming is as gracious at home as he was at the ball, I thought as I fell asleep to the motion of the speeding car. ♦

ASPEN GAY SKI WEEK STILL HAPPENING

Aspen's Annual Gay Ski Week Becomes Amendment 2 Protest A call-to-protest has been declared in Aspen, Colorado during the last week in January for what is known as Gay Ski Week.

Initially, after the passage in Colorado of Amendment 2, which bans civil rights protection based on sexual orientation, a boycott of Aspen was planned.

Quickly, however, the idea of thousands of angry lesbians and gays flooding into this normally sedate resort developed into a full fledged plan of attack. Instead of 4,000 participants, you will see upwards to 10,000 plus, according to Robin Tyler, gay activist and event producer. She added, "The blacks did not leave Alabama. They marched on Selma. We are not going to the back of the bus. We are not accepting bigotry. We are coming to Aspen."

In addition to the skiing, political fundraisers and lectures are planned, along with a list of celebrities and politicians invited to the protest of Amendment 2. A comedy night will take place at the Wheeler Opera House; the list goes on.

Voters statewide, passed the amendment 53 to 47 percent. Amendment 2 negates gay-protection ordinances in Aspen, Boulder and Denver. Lawsuits are pending to test the amendment in court.

According to Tyler, "I don't care if a gay skies or not. Every gay or lesbian should get their ass in Colorado for gay ski week."

GMSMA OFFERS EROTIC HAIR REMOVAL WORKSHOP

The GMSMA (Gay Men's S/M Association, NYC) offers its members special opportunities for in-depth exploration of Leather, SM and fetish related topics. These seminars meet for one night to talk about a selected topic from a variety of perspectives. WHERE LEATHERMEN MEET

By placing an ad in this section, a bar or other business is telling you that they welcome Leathermen.

By accepting their ad, Drummer is telling you that the bar has been recommended by a Leather/SM club or a recognized individual in the community as a good place to meet and socialize with other Leathermen. In larger cities, these will be the leather bars; in other areas, they will be the more general purpose bars where Leathermen do go to socialize.

Help us to alert Drummer readers and travelers to the right place to go to meet Leathermen in your part of the world. Send us your recommendations and talk to the right bar owners and managers about placing one of these low-priced ads. NORTHERN CHAPS TO HOST ALBERTA DRUMMER 93

On September 19, 1992, Northern Chaps held a General Membership Meeting to discuss the subject of hosting the 1993 Mr. Alberta Drummer contest. After much discussion, the unanimous vote was "YES". Therefore, on June 19, 1993, Edmonton will host the Mr. Alberta Drummer 93 contest. An endeavor such as this will require the efforts of as many volunteers as possible. Anyone interested may contact Northern Chaps directly.

LEATHER COMMUNITY ANNOUNCES ESTABLISHMENT OF LEATHER ARCHIVES AND MUSEUM

Recognizing that the rich history of the leather community is currently being ignored, forgotten and destroyed, Mr. Chuck Renslow, producer of the International Mr. Leather Contest, has established a non-profit corporation for the purpose of saving, protecting and displaying our leather history.

Known as the "Leather Archives and Museum," the board of directors, made up of prominent individuals from the leather community, is starting out by encouraging leather people and any family or friend of a leather person to send leather and S/M memorabilia to 5025 N. Clark Street, Chicago, Illinois 60640. Memorabilia includes such things as Audio and video tapes of interviews with long-time members of the leather community. These interviews bring our history to life and help us understand our leather and S/M "roots." Items that may seem insignificant take on new meaning when viewed as an archive or museum piece. For example, when a leather person dies, the family or friends might rush in and destroy any evidence that connected that person to leather or S/M. Sadly, things like old magazine collections, run pins, T-shirts from leather bars, matchbooks, play toys of any kind, photographs, posters and ashtrays all disappear. It is important we validate our present by studying our past.

Before throwing out such items of a friend, call the Leather Archives and Museum at 312/878-6360 or FAX a general list to 312/878-5184.

GAY UNIVERSITY STUDENT DISMISSED FROM ROTC

A University of Maine student is being denied the opportunity to continue in the Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps as a result of the military's persistent discrimination against lesbian and gay Americans.

Neal Snow, 21, was with Air Force ROTC for 3 years. He revealed the fact of his homosexuality to ROTC officials on September 21st, 1992. For Snow, it was the culmination of a two-and-half year process that began with self-acceptance in the midst of sometimes overwhelming misinformation. "I had no role models, no support system, and no one ever said that being gay was OK," he says, "No one said that being gay can be a good and positive thing." In recognition of his honesty, he was informed that his sexuality stood at odds with the purpose and positions of the United States Air Force, and that disenrollment proceedings would begin immediately.

Snow remains adamant in his assertion that he is a fit as ever for ROTC service. At a time when the military's ban on homosexuals is attracting increasing attention and censure, even while remaining unchanged, Snow thinks it more important than ever that cases such as his be made public. "Gays and lesbians, particularly those in the military who are struggling with the same problems, need to know how often this occurs. It's happening all over the country, not just in the academies."

While Snow wants to continue in ROTC, he is eager for the details of his case to be made known, and to be in touch with other gay military personnel across the country. Interested parties should contact Neal Snow through the University of Maine Public Affairs Office, 207/581-3743.

FIRST MR. CONNECTICUT LEATHER CONTEST HELD

A healthy showing of leathersmen and women converged on The Book Cafe in Westport, Connecticut, for the first ever Mr. Connecticut Leather competition. The event took place over the weekend of Lem Suiter - Winner (C), Bruce Goodwin - 1st Runner Up (L), and Eagle Masker - 2nd Runner Up (R).

October 2nd and 3rd. Judges and contestants alike came from around the region to compete for and select the first statewide titleholder. The host of the contest, Ken Savage, maintained the crowds attention with his own version of scratch'n sniff while the contestants obligingly offered up their asses for inspection.

Some of the judges included were Mike Miller of Boston, who served as head judge; Bob Saint, Mr. Maryland '92; Justin Charbonneau, Mr. New York Leather '91; and Michael Landon, Mr. Altar '92.

The weekend was dedicated to AIDS Awareness Month and to the work of Bread and Roses of Connecticut, an AIDS services organization. With seven contestants, the judges had a good selection from which to choose the future titleholder. Lem Suiter of nearby Philadelphia and a member of the Philadelphians M.C. took the title. Bruce Goodwin and Eagle Masker took first and second runner up, respectively. Text and photography by Paul Teixeira.

"IF YOU'RE GOING TO MONKEY AROUND, WEAR A BANANA"

Two Edmond, Oklahoma residents, Bobby Macias and Linda Don Carlos, have discovered a unique way of spending personal finances with AIDS research and wildlife preservation.

The company, Banana Condoms, offers top-of-the-line latex condoms which are lubricated, have a receptacle tip and come in a variety of colors and sizes. The company logo features "Banana Bob," a silver-haired gorilla that is quickly approaching extinction. While promoting a healthy life for humans by encouraging safer sex, the company donates a portion of their sales to AIDS research and to the preservation of the unique silver-haired gorilla.

The key words are optimism and education. Banana Condoms addresses the market segments, including the gay community, that other brands have ignored. They speak of the need for positive influence for the younger generation, as well as the older generation, where the words "sex" and "condoms" can still be embarrassing. Yet, their line appeals to these markets with their consumer conscious logo and their humorous, but informative, slogans. Banana Condoms sends safer sex messages out with their entire line of products, not just their condoms. the Banana Bob slogans, which include: "Every Big Show Needs a Top Banana," and "Go Ahead, Take the Gorilla Along, also appear on their line of apparel, which includes T-shirts, boxer shorts, terry robes, hats, visors and watches. They even offer a Top Banana kit that includes a t-shirt, hat or visor, and three-pack of Banana Condoms. For information, please call 1-800-955-7297. Mail orders are shipped in plain packaging to assure privacy and all transactions are strictly confidential.

DISNEY BECOMES GOOD FAIRY

Disney World in Florida has won its first Business and Industry Award from the Gay & Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation for their anti discrimination employment policy for lesbian and gay staff. EuroDisney, recently opened outside of Paris, and Disneyland Japan are not bound by the policy.

250 DUTCH MAYORS SIGN FOR EQUAL RIGHTS

The mayors of 250 cities in the Netherlands, representing half of the population, have signed a petition calling for equal rights for gays and lesbians. Initiated from the town of Beverwijk, the petition has been signed by 15 of the 20 largest cities in the country. Two cities have also jointed 22 others that maintain a wedding register for gays and lesbians.

HOSPITAL ORDERED TO HIRE HIV-INFECTED PHARMACIST

Without Restrictions on Job Duties or Lose Federal Funding Dept. of Health & Human Services Orders Westchester Medical Center To End Discrimination Against Health Care Workers With HIV/AIDS

(New York, NY, September, 1992) In the first federal HIV-related civil rights enforcement action, the Department of Health & Human Services (HHS) today ruled that a major medical center in New York discriminated against an HIV-positive pharmacist when it refused to hire him without restrictions on his duties. The decision ordered a cut-off of all federal financial assistance to the hospital until it ceases its discrimination, sending a strong message that health care workers with HIV who use universal precautions pose virtually no risk to patients.

The 40-page decision by the three-member Departmental Appeals Board upheld a powerful ruling handed down in April by Administrative Law Judge Steven T. Kessel. Based on the evidence provided by public health experts, including doctors from the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) and the National Institutes of Health, Judge Kessel ruled that Westchester County Medical Center's (WCMC) discriminatory policy of placing limits on the pharmacist's performance of duties, such as the preparation of IV products, violates the federal Rehabilitation Act. Today's HHS ruling ordered that all federal financial assistance to WCMC, as much as $107 million, be terminated following a 30-day period for congressional review, until the hospital rehires the pharmacist without restrictions or penalty.

Lambda Legal Defense & Education Fund, which represented the pharmacist, John Doe, in his nearly six year battle to win his job, free of discrimination, hailed the decision.

KENTUCKY SUPREME COURT RULES STATE SODOMY LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL Archaic Law Violates Right to Privacy and Equal Protection

(New York, NY, September, 1992) In a highly significant decision, the Supreme Court of Kentucky struck down the state sodomy law on Thursday, September 23rd. The 65-page ruling stated that privacy rights and equal protection rights under the state constitution apply to gay men and lesbians in the same manner that they apply to heterosexual sexual behavior.

The opinion, written by Justice Charles Leibson, and backed by four of the court's seven judges, stated that people need not "sympathize, agree with, or even understand" lesbian and gay sexual orientation in order to recognize a right to equal treatment before the law.

The Kentucky challenge first arose in 1986 during a sting operation in Lexington where plainclothes police officers, assigned to a suspected gay cruising area, solicited sex from passers by. Jeffrey Wasson, then 23, was arrested after inviting an officer to his home and mentioning sexual activity. Wasson was represented by Lexington attorney, Ernesto Scorsone.

Since the 1986 U.S. Supreme Court Hardwick decision which ruled that gay men and lesbians essentially have no right to privacy under the federal constitution, sodomy laws have had to be attached on a state-by-state basis. There are still 23 states (along with District of Columbia) that criminalize oral or anal sex between consenting adults in private. Six of those states prohibit such private sexual activity only between people of the same sex.

Within the last two years, lower courts in Texas and Michigan have struck down sodomy laws under their state constitutions on similar reasoning to that of the Kentucky Supreme Court.

IOWA IS FIRST MAJOR UNIVERSITY TO OFFER HEALTH BENEFITS TO PARTNERS OF LESBIAN AND GAY EMPLOYEES

Lambda Legal Defense Board Member is Key Player

(Iowa City, IA, October, 1992) On October 21, 1992 the Board of Regents of the University of Iowa approved a proposal to extend health insurance benefits to the domestic partners of its lesbian and gay employees. The plan, which goes into effect for a three year trial period beginning in January 1993, is the first such benefits package offered by a major university. The only institution of higher education to offer domestic partner benefits prior to the University of Iowa was Pfitzer College in California.

The plan to cover domestic partners was initially approved by the Funded Retirement and Insurance Committee (FRIC) at the University one year ago. The plan was then reviewed by the University's administration and finally approved during the summer of 1992. In October, the Regents voted 6 to 2 (with one abstention) to put the plan into effect. Subsequently, Lambda Board member Pat Cain joined the University of Iowa law faculty while the plan was under consideration and met with the committee members and administrators to help shape the plan. Pat Cain and her partner, Jean Love, who previously made headlines when they became the first same sex couple to be hired jointly by a university, worked behind the scenes with Sue Buckley, a University employee and Board member of the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force, to ensure a final victory.

To qualify for the plan, which will cover only domestic partners of gay and lesbian employees, the domestic partner must meet several requirements intended to establish that the relationship is a committed one. During the initial trial period the plan is in effect, only the high deductible option for health care coverage may be elected. The University of Iowa has approximately 8,000 employees; university officials estimate that around 50 employees may sign up for the benefits. The plan is a self-insured one, but is managed by Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Iowa. Other colleges and universities around the country are considering similar proposals; for instance, the Stanford faculty senate is scheduled to vote on the Stanford committee's proposal within weeks.

FEDERAL COURT DENIES GOVERNMENT'S REQUEST TO DISMISS LAWSUIT CHALLENGING MANDATORY HIV TESTING POLICY OF U.S. JOB CORPS APPLICANTS

(New York, NY, August, 1992) A federal judge in Washington, D.C. rejected a motion by the federal government to dismiss a legal challenge to the mandatory HIV testing policy of the U.S. Job Corps. In an opinion filed Aug. 10th, Federal District Judge Thomas Hogan ruled that the mandatory testing policy violates the federal Rehabilitation Act. Dorsey is represented by the Lambda Legal Defense and Education Fund and by Lambda's cooperating attorneys from the New York City law firm of Hughes Hubbard & Reed.

Job Corps is a nationwide, federally-sponsored residential job training program that serves tens of thousands of economically underprivileged Americans, ages 16 to 21, each year. In 1986, Job Corps adopted a policing requiring that all participants be tested for HIV. Under this policy, Job Corps automatically excluded all participants who test HIV-positive.

Without first seeking Dorsey's informed consent or performing required pre-test counseling, Job Corps tested Dorsey for HIV in 1987 upon his admission to the program's residential center in Dayton, Ohio. When tests revealed that he was positive, Job Corps immediately dismissed Dorsey from the program, without even counseling him regarding the meaning of his test results. Dorsey was 18 years old at the time, unemployed, and in desperate need of Job Corps' special-intensive vocational training.

In 1988, Dorsey filed suit in federal court challenging Job Corps' discriminatory actions on constitutional and statutory grounds. In response to Dorsey's lawsuit, Job Corps amended its HIV policy. The amended policy maintained the earlier policy's mandatory HIV testing provision but provided that applicants who tested HIV-positive would be permitted to receive Job Corps vocational training if they passed an intensive, unusually intrusive "psychosocial" evaluation.

Admitted to Job Corps under this new policy, Dorsey completed a two-year stint at the Dayton residential facility. In accordance with the amended policy, however, Dorsey was repeatedly tested for HIV, placed under constant surveillance, harassed by teachers and fellow students, and made to undergo a humiliating psychosocial review, during which he was asked to describe in detail his sexual desires and prior sexual encounters.

The court's opinion concluded that Dorsey could not pursue his constitutional claims because he is no longer a participant in Job Corps. The court held, however, that Dorsey is legally entitled to seek monetary damages against the government under the Rehabilitation Act. "[I]t is clear at this juncture that [Dorsey] has stated a cause of action [under Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act], the court said.

"The court's opinion acknowledges that HIV-positive persons who are victimized by senseless, inhumane government policies like Job Corps' have a right to their day in court," said Lambda staff attorney Mike Isbell. Additionally, he stated "...Job Corps' treatment of Dorsey sadly reflects the Bush administration's neglect of, and disdain for, teenagers at risk of HIV infection..."

HARTFORD COLTS M.C. SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY

A funny thing happened on the way to the corral...The Hartford Colts were joined by over 80 men to celebrate their 7th Anniversary. The Holiday Inn and THE QUARRY at THE PUB were the setting for the weekend celebration. After a two year break from providing live entertainment (SMTV & Lynn Lavner), the Colts went on stage...Live..

Falling doors, ad libs by Alan, special appearance by a Dolly Parton look-a-like, and special guest PJ. Installation of officers and the presentation of the Clark Holt Memorial Brotherhood Award concluded this part of the evening's activities. Off to the QUARRY and a more i n f o r m a l celebration...followed by a party back at the hotel, hosted by Entre Nous. Yes it was in the style that they are becoming quite famous for. On Sunday, an informal brunch was provided for those who stayed overnight and was held at Jan and Jack's home in Hartford. The colts are extremely appreciative of the contributions of the Griffins, Excelsior, C.O.M.M.A.N.D., and Centaur M.C. which added to the spirit of brotherhood and the success of this anniversary. A special thanks to STARS M.C. for their thoughtful gift.

NEW THEOLOGICAL BOOK DENOUNCES THE HISTORICALBIASES OF ANCIENT WRITERS OF THE BIBLE, AS A SOCIAL FATALITY, AND A DESECRATION OF HUMAN DIGNITY

(Long Beach, CA, October, 1992) The Bible prohibition of homosexuality, is an ancient religious dogma, and not a moral issue! So denounces Reverend Emilio's hit book of the 90's, THE LOVE FORUM (GETTING OUT OF THE CLOSET) THE TABOOS, MYTHS, AND FEARS OF HOMOSEXUALITY AND AIDS: This is the Motto of this most revealing religious/sociological master piece of modern literature. The chauvinistic-Patriarchal Mind set of the writers in the bible are responsible for the Patriarchal Stamp on the Bible, which is the cause for the institutionalization of male dominance over women, the discrimination and fears of people affected by AIDS; the discrimination of the black race and other minorities, and the discrimination, religious persecution and disrespect for the human dignity of Gays and Lesbians, says the author, The Reverend Dr. Emilio E. Marquez, Pastor and Dean of the worldwide Ministry of the Independent Church of Religious Science at Long Beach California. Dr. Marquez' Theological research indicates, that the Fundamentalists' Theological Affirmation of the literal translation of Holy Scriptures as "the literal word of God," is the cause for much seeming evil in the world today. One of the main purposes of this book is to neutralize the Patriarchal lies of the past; that lesbians and gays feel welcome at the Church again, those who abandon their religious denominations to accept their own homosexuality, and to eliminate religious homophobia; that all people may live together, be happy again, and respect the Bible for its Spiritual Treasures and not to be intimidated by the historical biases of Bible writers of the 10th Century B.C.; lacking of scientific knowledge of the chemistry of human biology and love for their fellow man. This book is about uniting homosexuals, heterosexuals and bisexuals; peoples from all races and walks of life to neutralize AIDS, the Anti-Christ of the 90's. THE LOVE FORUM is available at bookstores, libraries and Churches. To order, please write the Independent Church of Religious Science, 4102 East 7th Street, Suite 209, Long Beach, CA 90804 or call at 310/433-0384 or 310/434-2194. Retail price $16.95 (post paid, California residents add $1.40 Sales Tax per book).

BRISTOL-MYERS SQUIBB MAKES EXPERIMENTAL AIDS DRUG, d4T, AVAIL- ABLE TO PATIENTS IN CRITICAL NEED

(New York, NY, October 1992) Bristol-Myers Squibb Company announced it has received U.S. Food and Drug Administration approval of a Parallel Track Program protocol for d4T (stavudine), an experimental drug to treat AIDS that is under development by the company. Through the program, AIDS patients who are intolerant to or failing on the only two drugs approved for use as single agents -- AZT (zidovudine) and videx (didanosine, ddI) -- may be eligible to receive D4T. Patients who qualify will receive d4T at no charge via their physicians. Physicians interested in enrolling patients in this program should contact Bristol-Myers Squibb at 1-800-842-8036 to request registration kits and application forms. Completed applications for participation in the d4T Parallel Track program will be promptly reviewed by Bristol-Myers Squibb medical staff. The company is implementing the program voluntarily and will absorb the cost of d4T provided to Parallel Track participants.

CHEST MEN OF AMERICA HOLD FIRST ANNUAL CONVENTION

(Chicago, IL) Chest Men Of America, the world's only club for men who appreciate the male chest, held its first annual convention in Chicago's Hotel Lincoln, August 21, 22 & 23, 1992. Fifty-three of the club's three hundred and ninety-two members attended, coming from as far as Hawaii, Florida, California, New York, Canada, France and Germany. The first prize in the Best Chest contest was $500 cash, which was awarded to member Griff, 38, a bodybuilder from Ohio. He sported two 2 inch long, very thick nipples on huge gym-developed pecs. Second place went to Gary T., 37, another bodybuilder at 6'4", 220 lbs. who lives in Chicago. The third prize was taken by Dave M., 34, of St. Louis, who possessed a heavily muscled physique. Fourth place was a tie between CMA President Bob Berglund, 43, and Peter M. from Toronto. Because of the success of this first official gathering, it was decided at the business meeting held during the convention that 1993 CMA two day gatherings will be held in Los Angeles (March), New York (May), and Chicago (August), in addition to the monthly local CMA functions throughout the country. An edited convention video will be available for sale to the general public in October, 1992.

CMA was founded in 1980 by Duane Boulware as EDENITE. The club became Chest Men of America in 1992 under President Bob Berglund. The purpose of CMA, according to Berglund, is "to provide a network for every man in American and the world who is attracted to the male chest, enabling him to meet other men with the same interest, as consenting adults." Berglund believes that "true chest oriented sex is the safest form of sex, involving no risk of HIV transmission." MOTORCITY MEN OF LEATHER

Although the turnout for the third annual Poker Run for Charity was disappointing, a large crowd gathered at the FBI in Brooklyn for the chicken BBQ and contributed a hefty sum to the fund-raiser. The charity for this year's MML efforts is the Bishop's AIDS Fund which contributes to area AIDS organizations and organizes the annual "People Who Care About People With AIDS" church service. This year's event will take place on December 10 and it is hoped by the organizer, Rev. Rob Reinhart, that the leather community will attend in force, in colors, as a visible part of the community. There was vigorous buying of raffle tickets for prizes donated by Chosen Books, Sons and Daughters Bookstore, Times Square Bar, and Salute's Restaurant. A signed, and very hot, poster commissioned by Hal Green for Tribe's Do-A-Fool run, was a crowd pleaser and added to the fun of the afternoon.

S/M - THE MISUNDERSTOOD SEXUALITY

A new book on the subject of S/M was recently published entitled Learning the Ropes - A Basic Guide to Safe and Fun S/M Lovemaking, by Race Bannon. Never before has any writer attempted to introduce a reader to this style of sexuality in such a gentle, basic and informed manner. This concise guide offers the reader a brief overview of S/M. Topics such as defining what S/M actually is, various S/M techniques, safety, and how to connect with partners are covered. The book takes the stance that all sexuality, of any kind, should be fun. If it's not, you're doing something wrong. "Learning the Ropes - A Basic Guide to Safe and Fun S/M Lovemaking" is published by Daedalus Publishing Company and is available at bookstores and other retail outlets, or it may be ordered by sending your name and mailing address, along with a check or money order in the amount of $12.95, plus $2.50 shipping and handling, to Daedalus Publishing Company, 4470-107 Sunset Boulevard, Suite 375, Los Angeles, CA 90027. California residents should add 8.25% sales tax.

FRATERNITY

FOOT WEEKEND

by Hoddy Allan
illustrated with photos from Target Studios Archive

They say that men come from all over the Midwest, some of them making up to an eight-hour drive just to be at the Leather Stallion in Cleveland, Ohio, when the Foot Fraternity's in town. It's not so much for the foot action going down in the club's back courtyard when these guys show up (and there is a lot of it), but it's for the party energy the foot fetishists bring to the club: the energy of a lot of guys getting together for a weekend of shoe-talk and sock-appreciation, boot-worship and barefeet love.

For those who haven't heard of the Foot Fraternity, it is probably one of the best known of the fetish clubs, and has members worldwide. The club offers a quarterly roster of members' ads, a selection of books, tapes, and videos for the shoe/boot/sock/foot-loving crowd, and—once a year—it offers a gathering for members, and men come in from all over the world, across the US and Canada, from Europe and Asia, just to be there... in Cleveland.

And they're a diverse group of guys. No two foot fetishists are alike. Every guy who shows up at a Fraternity Weekend seems to have his own special spin on the fetish, from the bootlickers to the Bally loafer Imelda Marcos as their patron saint.

But the one thing these guys seem to be known for is the party they bring to the Leather Stallion, the hepped-up party energy and festive sexplay of a group of guys in town for a weekend of foot and footwear erotica; guys who take their act to the club's courtyard out back on the Friday and Saturday nights of the weekend. The trip to the Leather Stallion began when some of the Leathermen in the Frat wanted to hit a club sniffers, from the jocksock chewers to the blacksheersock foot-kissers.

All just part of the fun at a Fraternity Weekend.

Because a Frat Gathering is a time and space where foot-love is the norm, walk into the main social room in the hotel where the Frats have met for the past few years, and there will be much foot rubbing going on, a lot of shoe caressing, and sock-sniffing. It's not uncommon to be in the middle of a conversation with a Frat and see him sink to the floor and slip off your shoes. Try carrying on a conversation with someone deep throating your toes, go ahead. It can happen, and it does at a Frat Weekend.

There's that, and the feeling that one can cope with a fetish in a world still trying to cope with those of us who are "pleasured" let alone "differently pleased." For some who come to a Frat Gathering, it's their first time ever at sexplay the way they want it. For others who've been to Gatherings before, it's a chance to meet old friends, and to play the way they can't anywhere else. And, yes, it's a chance to go shopping for shoes with people who know just what you're looking for... and why.

Not that shoe shopping is a major activity for this bunch. Oh, no. But it's true, the group has claimed downtown, about a half hour's drive from the suburban hotel where the Frat has met for the past 10 years. They carpoled and designated drivers, and soon the drive downtown from the hotel became a field trip, with some of the members going to their very first leather bar. Since that first outing, it's been an annual tradition, and the crew that invades the Stallion brings along a lot of varied sexual tastes and interests.

It's not uncommon to see someone licking out another guy's boot treads while someone else is getting off on someone else's sneakers. The Tops in the Frat crowd will start picking on a willing bottom or two, thus "kicking out the first bottom of the evening," so to speak. It takes a lot of work over an average Frat weekend to earn the unofficial titles of "Floor Whore," and "Carpet Slut," and many leave the club with dusty knees and smudged faces for trying.

Not that anyone complains. Not the management of the Stallion, they announce the Frat's arrival on the club's PA system and eagerly welcome Frat members. One year, the strippers hired for the evening had a hell of a time trying to figure out just what the crowd around them was looking for. One bright kid got the idea, stripped off his socks, and began running around the club, sticking them in as many faces as he could.

Just more of the fun of a Fraternity Weekend.

The welcome given the Frats, the effect on local party energy is part of the fun. So is the fact that friendships made at a Frat weekend are very usually permanent ones, that one or two couples find each other and fall in love every year, and that a young, inexperienced, or novice Frat member has someone looking out for him, has someone to go to for advice, encouragement, or help. All in all, it's not bad for a bunch of rowdy, caring foot freaks in the backyard of a bar.

Tops have commented on how the Tops in the Frat take good care of the bottoms in their group. When the play got too rough for one guy and he freaked, he had four Leathermen around him, holding him, helping him to calm down again. But, as Doug Gaines, the Head of the Fraternity says each year to the men who get together for the Frat Weekend: "We're family."

DRUMMEDIA

One Hell of a Media Harvest

By Joseph W. Bean

Hun-o-rama

Did you enjoy The Hun's Gohr cartoons? I did. In fact, Gohr is my favorite erotic cartoon strip ever published anywhere, and I felt great being the editor who put Gohr to bed in his first eight outings.

Big-G was, of course, already the roughest, toughest, and far-n-away the horniest hunk in cartoons, but the imagination (mine anyway) always put the Neo-Barbarian through some very old fashioned, un-published paces between the published frames and pages. Ta-dah! With all the shit-sucking, butt-plugging, and piss-slurping Gohr could never be allowed do in a newsstand-legal magazine, The Hun has given Gohr a private cartoon book, and a more barbaric sex style all his own.

Whew! It's as hot as any cartoon can safely get, and I'm not sure it's safe at that. Version one of Gohr is obviously "as seen in Drummer magazine" (issues 137, 142, 143, 148, 149, 154, 155, and 157). Version two, which The Hun calls the "non-brown" version is made up of Gohr's first six Drummer pages, plus eight pages of added imaginings. Version three has another two pages of wild action—lots of brown and yellow additives in black and white. Get your colored pencils ready guys.

This is not just a Hun collectible, it's dee-liciously hot stuff! Whether you want the full or non-brown edition, the cost for the Hun Comics Gohr 1 is just $20.00. Checks should be made payable to Bill Schmeling and sent to The Hun, P. O. Box 11308, Portland, OR 97211.

Aaron Travis's "Slaves"

In May through August of 1982, Drummer serialized Aaron Travis's Slaves of the Empire. About two years later, Alternate Publishing (publisher of Drummer), released a slightly expanded version of the already-classic tale in book form. The Matt and Exely illustrations that appeared in the serialized story were replaced in the book with a dozen excellent drawings by Cavelo (who else?).

In case you don't already know "Slaves," it is a markedly modern leatherman's mythic re-making of the Golden Age of slave-abusing Roman Gladiators and their countrymen—a sopping, cum-soaked history novel that is full of hot SM and nearly non-stop sex. "Slaves" is right up there on the shortest of the short lists of the best power-playing male erotic writing.

Why do I happen to mention at the end of 1992 a story published in 1982 and collected into an expanded book in 1985? Because Badboy—the busiest male novel publisher I know of—has just released a new edition of Slaves of the Empire. The new edition is a straight reprint of the first book with no added introduction or anything of the sort, and no illustrations either. What it does have to recommend it is wide distribution to bookstores around the country that will carry such titles, plus a very attractive price: $4.95.

Meantime, RoB San Francisco still has a few copies of the first edition (including the 12 Cavelo illustrations). These are also attractively priced—being first editions, with Cavelos, produced very handsomely, with a nice Pamelina painting on the cover. First edition from RoB: $9.95 plus $1.50 shipping and handling; California residents add 8.5% sales tax. RoB San Francisco, 22 Shotwell Street, San Francisco, CA 94103.

Also "As Seen In Drummer"

For issue 100 of Drummer, Fledermaus, then the new publisher of the magazine, asked the most significant contributors to the first decade of Drummer to produce something special for the landmark number. One of the stories submitted was "Board of Inquiry" by Larry Townsend which was actually published in two parts, in 100 and 101.

If you missed it there, get it now in Dream Master and Other SM Stories by Larry Townsend, a very fine book comprising five pieces of hot fiction—pure Townsend, released under the LT imprint. This is the first book-format book (as opposed to magazine format books) published by LT, following on the heels of the Alyson Publications release of Masters' Counterpoint, but reaching your local bookstores in advance of the "Counterpoint" sequel, One for the Master, Two for the Fool from which an excerpt was published in Drummer 157.

All the stories in "Dream Master..."

were previously published between 1982 and 1985. Except for "Board of Inquiry," however, all were published in limited-circulation editions by LT. Hard-core LT fans will recognize the stories: "To Skin a Cat" from Townsend's 1982 New Treasury of SM 2, "Arbeit Macht Frei" from "Treasury 4" in 1983, "Dream Master" from "Treasury 7" in 1985, and "Schoolmaster" from 1985's Schoolmaster and Other Stories.

Will you enjoy these five SM tales? Yes, I think you will, IF you like longish SM stories. Of course, these stories are not long with padding, not at all. They are long because they are heavy with both sex-SM-sex and good solid storytelling. And, in typical LT fashion, these are all multi-use stories. That is, stories you can one-hand to climax more than once before you get to the end of the story the first time—not to mention the fact that such rich storytelling also makes rereading (one-handed again) more likely.

Finally, Dream Master and Other SM Stories is not a well-made book. It desperately needs the attention of an editor, a designer, and a production manager, but if you overlook the making of the book in favor of the contents, you'll be very happy to have it in hand.

If it isn't in your local store, you can order this book directly from Larry Townsend, P. O. Box 302, Beverly Hills, CA 90213. Send $11.95, plus $2 shipping and handling.

R.A. Shultz illustration from Martian Song just one of the stories in This Universe of Men by Greg Logan.

Preston's Drummer Reprint

John Preston has picked up a phrase from a Lambda Book Report review in which he was called "the dark lord of gay erotic fiction" and made it the title of his newest story collection, Tales from the Dark Lord. The book—under the Badboy imprint of Masquerade Books, again—is composed of 12 previously published stories, one of them from Drummer #59 and one from Mach #1.

Most of the stories were first published in either Honcho or an Advocate publication, so they aren't the heaviest SM tales you're ever going to read, but Preston fans—leathery as they may be—are going to love them. And, frankly, some of John Preston's very best short fiction is pulled together in this volume. It's sexy, leather-scented stuff even at its most vanilla, and it will get you in the groin. Guaranteed.

Tales from the Dark Lord is not illustrated. It should be on sale everywhere for $4.95.

And a Sort-Of from Drummer Category

This Universe of Men by Greg Logan is another collection of sex stories with a distinctly leathery sensibility, a nice feeling of emotional involvement and caring, balanced against an also well-articulated current of submission and dominance. Here though, unlike most head-on leather erotica, the domination flows openly from the bottom's desires more often than the Top's power, and in a least one story we see the exercise of Top-power portrayed as rape to which the bottom never warms, and by which he is actually damaged. (Not to worry, he gets his revenge, but good.)

"Universe" is an all science fiction collection, but it is not lost in preposterous fantasy—meaning it is truly science fiction in an era when most non-sexual science fiction is getting too fantastical for my tastes. One tale, "Cro-Magnon," takes place in the titularly explained, far distant past, when a traveler from the future goes "elsewhen" for scientific reasons, and stays "then" for sexual pleasure and love of a sort. The remainder of the eight stories happen in the space-traveling future—and it's really, outrageously hot.

Here novices are "spacepups" and we run into pirates and aliens, but there is nothing incredibly unfamiliar because the obsessions and dreams, demands and responsibilities, desires and needs of these men are not different from our own. The desires and needs are differently answered in these stories though.

Let's take one of these fantastic stories as an example. If you've ever wished to have your lover's cock become the largest hunk of thrustable meat in the universe, he might—as does the protagonist in "Martian Song"—just turn Martian; they're sexy, ape-like beasts with dicks that would rip Arnold Schwarzenegger to shreds on the first push. Not to worry, you can turn Martian too, and find yourself able to take it with pleasure the very first time it slams into you. And a Martian is not just a giant cock on the run, it has a matching sex drive, massive amounts of body hair, a bull-like head, and incredible energy... no rest periods required, it seems.

Similarly, if you've ever imagined yourself in need of protection, but wishing to be "taken," even taken advantage of by your protector, read "Spacepup" where the novice is raped, and becomes the lover of the hardened space-hand who stands by him and helps him get his revenge.

The final analysis: Of the 20 or so books of male stories I have read this year, nothing has given me anywhere near as much pleasure (one handed and literary) as This Universe of Men. Ah, but you have to be wondering why I called it a "sort-of from Drummer" book. The from-ness of it is only that the eight illustrations and full-color cover are all by R. A. Shultz whose illustrations for Drummer have been so excellent. Shultz is at his best here and adds to each story a hint of otherness rather than a straight translation of a given line of moment.

This Universe of Men is published by FirstHand, the publishers of the magazine of the same name (and of Guys, Manscape, and Manshots magazines, too) as well as such very fine books as Mineshaft Nights Leo Cardini and Mantalk by Jerry Douglas. "Universe" should be in book stores everywhere by now. Or you can order it directly from the publisher: Send $10.95, plus $2 shipping and handling to FirstHand Ltd., P. O. Box 1314, Teaneck, NJ 07666.

And Now, For Something Completely Visual

The 15 Association, San Francisco's venerable SM club, has made four tapes over the years, and all of them are still available now. These are not slick videos, not in any way; in fact, these may be the crudest tapes I have ever recommended to Drummer readers, but I can and do recommend that if what you want is real SM action, caught as it happens rather than staged for the camera, this is where to get it. What you'll get is pain scenes in progress, a lot of paddling and flogging, not much fantasy role play or pure Domination-submission stuff. The lighting is dungeon light, the interactions of SM party interactions, and the players are genuine.

The tapes of 15 Association parties are The 15 Tape, On Fire, The Basement, and The New Dungeon, in order (I believe) chronologically. Of these, the one I enjoyed most is the original 15 tape, but I like them all for what they are. And, each 15 tape is a different set of players doing very different SM. So, different viewers will enjoy different parts of different tapes most. Each tape sells for just $60.00 including shipping, handling, etc. Send your orders to The 15 Association, P. O. Box 421302, San Francisco, CA 94142.

Hot Bods In & Out of Bonds

One of the newest additions to The Zeus Collection is Anal Obsession. Are you ready for it? If you saw The Eagle of Fort Lauderdale earlier this year (also from Zeus), you were probably left breathless by Russ Johannsen. Tops fell for him and his talented ass, bottoms tended to identify with him... and his talented ass.

He's ba-a-a-ack, and this time he's doing it with his real-life lover, Dillon Tate. If Johannsen is beautiful (and he IS), it's no surprise that he'd have a beautiful lover (and he DOES). No one else wanders in, no hands reach into the frame to help out. It's all Russ and Dillon. Whew!

What do you have here besides two youthful, trim, eye-popping sun worshippers? Action! We start out with both of them bound, which doesn't bother Russ. He figures he'll just take advantage of the situation to get his mouth on Dillon's bod. Dillon, on the other hand, is only interested in getting untied so he can get at Russ. (And, he DOES.)

The initial bondage is leather, and Dillon's got heavy, chromed clothespins on his tits, and a ball gag too. Nice. Russ sucks Dillon's crotch, his clothespins, and his nipples before he eventually unties Dillon's hands with his mouth. Very nice, but maybe a mistake, depending. Dillon's wrist-wrap bonds get doubled up a couple of times and become a whip for Russ's ass.

So, we get a lot of ass slapping, a bit of whipping, some very pretty shots of Russ's clean pucker. Then the title action—Anal Obsession—begins: You get dildo action, verbal interaction about the ass play, more ass slapping, [cut to a sling] and more pistoning dildo action, a butt plug assisted by a big electric vibrator, and bunches of handsome fucking.

If you can cope with clean, tanned guys, they don't get much better than Russ. And Dillon's cool too. If you can deal with bondage, intimacy, sex, and ass toys (I knew you could.), you're going to want to get Anal Obsession.

Order your copy directly from Zeus. Send $69.00 plus $3 for shipping and handling along with your order and a statement that you are of legal age to Zeus, P. O. Box 64250, Los Angeles, CA 90064.

GETTING WHAT YOU WANT...by mail

If you live in one of the world capitals of hedonism—say, San Francisco, New York, London, or Amsterdam—you can hop down to your nearest Leather/Rubber/SM Gear shop and pick up what you need, or have it custom made. If not, you have three choices: Do without (No way!), wait till you can vacation in a juicier environment (But, no, vacation is when you want to already have the garments and gear, all tested and broken in!), or shop by mail. Of course, you might also want to shop by mail to get the exact item you want, to get it at a price you find appropriate, or to keep your lifestyle a little bit more private (for whatever reason). And, no doubt, you have your own reasons for wanting mail order catalogs, like “the comfort of shopping from your easy chair.” So, here are a few of the catalogs that have been released recently...at your service.

RoB San Francisco

When Rob Amsterdam, long considered one of the premiere shopping stops on a leatherman's European tour, opened a store in San Francisco, a new catalog was born. The established RoB lines of leather and rubber garments and toys were joined by the most popular items from the “never catalogued” line of Sandmutopia Supply Company merchandise. Sandmutopia Supply and the Drummer Store were incorporated into RoB San Francisco—losing a handful of items in the process, items that didn't pass muster on questions of quality and reliable supply, for instance. The new line (and shop) is a carefully considered range of erotic clothing, emphasis on rubber without undermining the leather line, with some toys and devices, too. The catalog is 84 pages. It sells for $10.00 plus $1.50 shipping and handling. The introductory offer of a catalog for $6 with a $6 rebate voucher enclosed expires December 15, 1992.

What's outstanding about the catalog, other than the merchandise is a series of spectacular photographs—some including recognizable merchandise—by internationally famous photographer Erwin Olaf. Art prints of the photographs are being sold by RoB, but the photos are not yet available in the RoB store.

Mr. S Leathers, et al

Since Alan Selby left Mr. S, things have been changing at lightening speed. The result, perhaps stabilized now with the release of the new catalog, is a business combining the forces and product lines (and, presumably, the mailing lists) of Mr. S, Fetters, Eureka Leathers, and The Eagle's Shop. The range of garments and toys is incredible, with a powerful emphasis being placed on function scene gear, not to the detriment of the clothing however. Many of the photos are scene shots, which Mr. S intends to offer as photo sets and posters later. You can help decide which photos are made into sets and posters if you get a catalog and respond to the query on the subject (see the inside back cover). The catalog is being released in two parts, but offered as a single purchase. You pay $15.00 now, and you get a 76 page catalog right away. That's part one. Part two, intended to be mailed around the first of the year, is expected to be at least 40 additional pages, maybe more.

What's outstanding about the catalog, other than the merchandise, is a playful passion expressed in all the product shots, and evidence of the catalog-maker's (Richard Hunter's) joy in pushing his models (as well as his products) toward their limits.

Heartwood Whips of Passion

While there are some whips available in most leather/SM catalogs (including some decent ones in both catalogs mentioned above), Janette Heartwood's little, 24-page booklet is a whip-lover's dream. In a rambling, homey prose, she tells us a something about herself as a whip maker, something of the history of her whips, and more than a little about her place in the power-exchanging community. None of this is especially relevant to selecting a whip, but it's pleasant, reassuring, and interesting. As for the whips, the varieties are very painstakingly described, and three color photographs are glued in on appropriate pages to jump start the selection process. Since this is a review of the catalog, it may be inappropriate to insert actual information about the whips, but... even a couple of years ago, I was unimpressed by Heartwood's whips. Now, there are a number of her pieces I would add to my working collection if I could afford to do so. And you mustn't think I am saying her prices are high, they are not! This catalog sells for just $5.00 including tax, shipping, etc., and (in my whip-passionate view) would be worth the price even if you didn't intend to buy any whips.

What is most interesting about this catalog is the merchandise itself. A remarkable range of leathers, styles, lengths, weights, colors, and so forth. Every detail of the construction of floggers and cats is varied and combined (or available for variation and re-combination).

Janette Heartwood, 412 N. Coast Hwy. #210, Laguna Beach, CA 92651 Phone for queries (no orders by phone): (714) 376-9558

NOTE: When ordering a catalog by mail, be sure to state that you are over 21, and be sure to include your signature. Preposterous as it is, sending you even a catalog might be a prosecutable offense—depending on constantly changing factors—and it is better to handle this requirement up front, taking responsibility for the mail you want to receive.

8 CALENDARS FOR 93

The best of the new crop of calendars.

Two for leathermen . . . others not.

These days most of us are pretty much hard-wired to our datebooks and appointment calendars. No decorative frills, thank you. They have to function, and if we lose them we say things like "I lost my life!" But at home (or in the right office) we have a little more freedom about our calendars. They still have to work in the sense of giving us the right dates for holidays and weekends; they still have to be orderly. But they can also "get to us" where we feel at ease, the very opposite of the side of ourselves that is driven by the business and social datebook. So, why not go all the way? Let your at-home calendar grab you by the cock, put a buzz in your throat or an itch in your ass.

There are not a lot of calendars that can do that as far as I can see. Most of the ones I've seen that are made to do it are dead misses. So, without so much as a pit stop at the misses, here are the ones I think you'll agree are real hits.

FORGE STUDIO

The Forge Studio calendar each year is the calendar of real leathermen in hard-look photos. 1993 is no exception. Every month, you get a new picture of a Top or bottom, a leathersex player, floating above such unfamiliar holidays as Mercredi de Cendres (Ash Wednesday) and Victoria Day (February 24, 1993), and the usual USA holidays as well (each of them marked with "USA"). Photographer/publisher J. Craig Lawrence of Toronto, Canada, knows what he likes, and guesses correctly that you and I will enjoy it too. I do. You will.

To get a Forge Leather/Cuir Calendar for 1993, check out your local gay bookstore or newsstand, or send $11.50 plus $2.50 shipping & handling to Forge Studios, 552 Church Street, Suite 500-24, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, M4Y 2H0.

THE 15 ASSOCIATION

It's not necessarily a matter of choosing one over the other, you can have both, but you might prefer SM fantasy drawings rather than photographs. If so, you'll probably want the calendar published by The 15 Association. The 1993 calendar has 6 drawings by Captian Les—hot, dripping, bulky men in leather and SM scenes. This is a very low-tech calendar, photocopied (I think), but beautiful. Les, one of the most unique and stylish SM artists working today, is able to draw wildly fantastical men with only one element left unexaggerated—their hearts. True, what he draws are oversized muscles and massive cocks, cruel grins and evil smirks, but these are SM monsters you trust to abuse from love. Weird? Yes, weird and hot.

To get a 15 Association calendar, send $4.00 to The 15 Association, P. O. Box 421302, San Francisco, CA 94142, along with your request and a promise that you are of legal age.

CALENDARS FOR “HER”... NOT!

One of the very slight, but genuine effects of the sexual revolution has been the publishing of male images for women to ogle. Calendars (probably starting with the infamous “Foreplay” calendar in the early 1970s) are among the better ways for gay men to take their share of pleasure from this revolution in publishing and imagery. After all, in a calendar you get the male meat without having to slog through articles about how it’s okay to be a working mother or a housewife, or what menopause means to your husband.

In most years, the beefcake calendars (at least purportedly made for women) are as bad as the gay calendars, apparently made for some stereotypical queen I don’t know. For 1993, however, it seems that Landmark Calendars has crossed the line. They definitely have a bead on what I consider super-hot in at least a few of their zillions of calendar titles. (They do everything from Baby Animals to Unpleasant Ways to Die, but we’ll just look at their MEN.)

The landmark calendar for men in the Landmark Calendar line has to be “Studs-n-Spurs” with a dozen Jon Abeyta photos of dudes who wear their Western gear...er, uhm...gracefully—but not too gracefully. It’s male, in the best sense of the word. Well, because I knew I’d have trouble saying, and you’d have trouble believing, I snipped out a few of the pictures so you could see for yourself.

The next hot item in the Landmark line is an unusual one. The title is “Denim,” and the photos are by Kal, and they’re very interestingly colored. Although there’s no credit to explain it, they seem to be hand-tinted in sepia-range browns for everything else with blue added for the denim. 11 of the pictures are men posed to seduce, the 12th—December—is an artwork of another order, worth the price of the calendar all by itself.

Here are a few other Landmark Calendar titles that my co-workers here at Drummer tell me you would like. Okay, they're nice—but they're my types.

"Rear View" is all ass shots of pretty, young guys wearing undies of the most revealing sort. "Up Front" is the same body types in the same kinds of underwear, obviously seen from the opposite angle. "Hot Bods" is mostly about pecs, and if you're into major hunks, you'll like this one—chestmen, attention. If parts is parts, torsos is art, and "Physique" is the Landmark entry for hard, muscled, achingly perfect torsos. Even if it isn't up to the sizzle of "Studs-n-Spurs," this one could almost be called

Studs-n-Spurs. Yep, I was definitely distracted by this non-leather, a la Playgirl photography—uncredited. For a slightly looser interpretation of maleness, you might prefer the "Male Image" calendar. The bodies are not so slick and smooth and perfectly toned, but they still belong to the category of magnificence the world subscribes to. The example above from "Male Image" will suffice to demonstrate the difference. The photography here is by Jon Abeyta, the lens-craftsman who made my spurs jingle so nicely with "Studs-n-Spurs."

All the Landmark Calendars mentioned above sell (msrp) for $10.99 except for the remarkable "Studs-n-Spurs" which sells for $9.99. You may be able to locate these in bookstores, but you can definitely order them from the publisher by calling Landmark at 1-800-677-1993. Of course, to order by phone, you'll need a credit card, and you'll pay shipping charges. But, as an added bonus, you can choose calendars (right up to the last minutes) as gifts for friends, and have Landmark send them out gift-wrapped and with your personal message enclosed. (It wouldn't hurt to tell Landmark you read about them in Drummer, the male-to-male leather mag.)

Hey, look. you're going to want calendars. One here, one there, right? So, they might as well give you a buzz. Go for it, even if you have to keep them on the inside of your closet door.—JWB ♦

Re-Inventing the Drummer Leather Calendar 1993

... with your help

The events listed below certainly are a scant suggestion of the bustling activities of the international leather community. They have been selected, largely, from the mail in the office at the time that this issue of Drummer went to press, with a few events chased down by phone because they seemed important to someone here. Now, it's your turn. If you are a club member, event producer, or just a fan who wants to boost a certain happening in your area, write to the address below. Tell us about the things you know are going to happen in the future (past events might be reported in The Leather Bulletin Board), as far in the future as possible. What we want to know is what is happening, the actual name of the event and what it includes; when it is happening, the date and time, but also for how long, over what days; who is producing, sponsoring, attending, welcome at the event (and, maybe, who is not welcome—such as men only, gay only, etc.); where the event is taking place, or how interested people can find out about the location if it is “secret,” including the names and cities of multiple locations that might be involved with a single event; and how we and our readers can get more information, as well as how much it will cost. Some events will be listed, other events will be highlighted with a few remarks, and others will be featured. What determines the level of exposure/promotion your event gets in the new Drummer Leather Calendar is 1) how much reliable information we get, 2) how much time we have to work on it, 3) the size/scale of the event as planned, 4) the uniqueness of the event (club bar nights being, for example, less unique than weekend anniversary runs across state lines), and 5) how well you do at capturing the attention of the editors with the material you send. Photographs of producers, previous annual editions of events, performers who will be working an event, or just guys in the setting where the event is happening can help you get boosted up the ladder toward a full-scale feature in the calendar because photos help us make our pages interesting. Got it? You do the work, and we'll work for you!

Send material (even if you think we already have it or already “ought to know”) to: Drummer Leather Calendar, 24 Shotwell Street, San Francisco, CA 94103. And, we definitely do want to include your club's bar nights and regular meetings.

Last year's big winner at Bear Expo, John Caldera. Looks like some bears are marsupials.

JANUARY

The month begins, of course, with New Year's Day, and the celebrating is actually going to start the night before. In San Francisco, a leatherman's best bet for a great New Year's party is The 15 Association dungeon party. Call for invitation information: (415) 673-0452.

The Avatars in Los Angeles will have their annual public meeting on January 27. This year, the annual meeting marks the club's 10th anniversary. For further information, call the Avatar Hotline, (818) 563-4626.

FEBRUARY

The new year really gets under way in a big way by February: In Europe, Fasching and Fasnacht celebrations (the German-ic equivalents of Mardi Gras and Carnival) will take place in various cities on a variety of dates. And, in the US, Mardi Gras in New Orleans begins on Feb. 13.

On the subject of Mardi Gras, you may already know that Australia's big gay pride event is traditionally a Mardi Gras parade. It may or may not be able to happen that way this year. Get in touch with someone there who is up-to-date on the subject before flying off to increasingly-conservative Australia for the celebration this year.

The 15 Association in San Francisco is at it again, celebrating their anniversary weekend on Feb 12-14 with a dinner and two play parties. Call for invitation information: (415) 673-0452.

Also in No. California, Bear Expo 93 is scheduled for the same weekend, Feb. 12 to

15. Bear Expo is produced by The Bear Fax and The Bearhug Group. This is the second annual "International Bear Convention and Exposition," and it promises to be a great event. For more information call (415) 647-9127.

Here's something new in February: Leather Weekend in the Desert! This event, intended to be scattered around at several locations in Palm Springs, California, didn't have an exact date when we went to press, but we'll get the facts for you if we can. Meantime, if you're planning a winter vacation in PS, CA, check with the bars, they're probably already gearing up for it now.

In England: The Sadie Masie Club meets February 12 (Love Hurts, a Valentine's Party), 19 (Hell for Leather), and 26 (Tie me up, Tie me down). All meetings are 10 PM to 3 AM at The Basement Club at The Centre, 69 Cowcross Street, London EC1 (Farrington Tube). And, the Bournemouth Leather MSC celebrates its seventh anniversary February 18-20. Those dates are right, Thursday through Saturday.

On the Continent: SLM Copenhagen has anniversary weekend number 19 to celebrate February 5-7, and the MS Panther Fancy Dress Ball, "Caribbean Nights," will be February 20.

MARCH

Starting in Europe: MSC Hamburg hosts its Friendship Ride on the weekend of March 12 to 14; and Loge 70 of Zurich, Switzerland, hosts the SKVdC New Year's Conference March 26-28.

In the US, the big event will be The Leather Journal's Pantheon of Leather, taking place this year at Parliament House, Orlando, FL, on March 5-7. Incorporated in the Pantheon weekend, as usual, is Luke Owens' International Masters & Slaves Contest. And, although we have no real news about it for 1993, we expect that Northwind will be producing his second rubbermen's weekend in Vancouver—Rubout 2—toward the end of the month. The other big event of the month will be the selection of a new International Ms. Leather in San Francisco, March 19 and 20.

APRIL

The one event this month that has to be on the top of everyone's list is The March on Washington for Lesbian and Gay Rights, April 25. (See Male Call page, this issue, for more details.) After the march, slide on down to Austin, Texas, for the NLA: Austin's Leather Pride Weekend, April 30 to May 2.

In Europe, MSC Berlin is hosting an event called "Airport Berlin," on April 8-12. With that name, no matter what's going on, people are sure to be flying high after five days of celebrating in Berlin.

MAY

As summer approaches in the Northern Hemisphere, the calendar really fills in. In the US, the big event of May is International Mr. Leather, in Chicago, as always, on May 27 to 30. (Even though we got those dates directly from the IML office, we suggest you check them out carefully before booking flights since Memorial Day is the previous weekend.) Lenny Broberg who has been a powerfully popular IML will hand over the sash, but he's not likely to get much rest. Event producers all over the country have enjoyed Lenny's help (not to mention his decorative appearance), and they're threatening to keep working him, title or none.

In Europe, there's more happening than any one leatherman could possibly keep up with. April 30 to May 2, for example, you have to choose between weekend-long events with MSC Scotland and LC Stuttgart. The following weekend, May 6-9, is LC Hamburg's "Hexenkessel." Then, May 14-17 is SKVdC MS Connexion Mannheim's "COG 93," conflicting with SLM Oslo's "Syttende Mai in Leather." On 20-23, it's the Top of Europe Meeting, appropriately held in Stockholm, and hosted by SLM Stockholm. Meantime, 21-23, MSC Belgium is having its Leather Party weekend. And on the last weekend of the month, you choose one of three events: MSC MSC hosting their Tenth Birthday Party and FUKC Conference, Loge 70 (Zurich) doing Zurich International, and SLM Stockholm's famous Baltic Battle run, including the selection of Mr. Baltic Battle.

JUNE

This month, all over the world, the Stonewall Riots will be remembered in Gay Pride marches, parades, parties, and weekends. Most major US cities are using the same dates again this year (although we hear every year that the big parades will not all happen the same weekend "next year"). It's June 27 in Los Angeles, New York, and San Francisco—and probably in Chicago as well. New York ups the ante a good deal for leathermen trying to choose one of these celebrations. They start Leather Pride Week on June 18, scooping the weekend before Gay Pride into their Leather Pride celebration which then continues right through the weekend of the 27th.

In Europe, where Stonewall-related celebrations are fewer and smaller as a rule, you might rather hook up with one of the clubs in June. The Rurals host an ECMC Bikerun on June 4-6. Same weekend, MSC London and the Sussex Lancers MSC co-host a Brotherhood Run. On June 11-13, be in Germany for LFRR Essen's "Kumpeltreffen," and the next weekend (18-20), be in Paris for ASMF's incredibly popular "Demon's Night" celebrations. If you miss "Demon's Night," let it be because you are in London, England, with The London Blues, doing "London Manoeuvres." Then, on June 25-27, leather Europe's attention will be on "Leather Odyssey 93" hosted by FLC Frankfurt.

JULY

Things are a little less confusing in Europe in July—just one run per weekend. 2-4, MSC Hanover's "Schutzenfest." 9-11, MSC Rote Erde (Dortmund) hosts "Das 2 Mai (??)." 23-25, MSC Rhein Main (Frankfurt) has "Bauernhaustreffen." And, July 30 to August 1, MSC Finland will have its really big weekend, "Finlandization 7."

July 4 in America is traditionally considered a good time for uniform clubs to do their thing, but this year we haven't yet heard of any such events. But the Tarheel Leather Club in North Carolina will celebrate its third anniversary with a weekend of goings on in Greensboro.

If tradition is upheld, The Jackaroos in Melbourne, Australia, will have their infamous "Christmas in July" weekend on July 23-25.

AUGUST

According to the TLJ calendar, we can expect The Jackaroos (Melbourne) to celebrate "Dracula's Dinner" on August 21. It's one of those things that makes you go "hmmmm?!"

In Europe: Aug. 5-8, MSC Hamburg has a "Leather Party." Aug. 13-16, MSC Iceland will hold the "Leather Summit," and leathermen from all over the world are getting in the habit of turning up for this very out-of-the-way but (so we hear) remarkable event. LMC Vienna's "Bikerun 93" is a week-long run, August 14-21. MS Amsterdam's 23rd anniversary will be celebrated August 27-29 in the city. That same weekend, the Black Angles (Koln) and the Sussex Lancers MSC (England) will have 3 and 4 day runs, respectively.

The Russian River Leather Weekend will be held in Guerneville (Northern California) in August. Dates and other details to follow.

SEPTEMBER

Obviously, we at Drummer think the biggest and best event in September is necessarily Leather Pride Week in San Francisco, including the Mr. Drummer international finals, the Folsom Street Fair, and dozens of related (and unrelated) leather/SM and gay events. The dates for SF's Leather Pride Week this year will be September 19-26, with the likelihood of the "week" expanding in either or both directions.

If history repeats itself as planned, The Outer Limits in Seattle will host "Powersurge," an SM dykes conference, on the first weekend of September.

And the clubs in Europe will be hopping. Sept. 10-12, choose between two runs in England: Bournemouth Leather MSC hosting "Hide & Sea," and East Mercia MSC putting on "FUKC Bikerun 93." On Sept. 17-20, choose England or Germany: MSC Hallamshire at "RAF Finningley Air Display 93," or MLC Munchen hosting "Oktoberfesttreffen." Then, on the 24-26 weekend, MCRA Lyon (France) offers "Nuit Cul de Sac."

We have unconfirmed news that Mike's Men will be doing their "Mr. American Leatherman Contest" in Boston during the Mr. Drummer finals. More news as we get it. Another event we're still waiting to hear more about is International Mr. & Ms Cheeks and Chaps. It's set for San Francisco in September, we don't yet know where or when.

OCTOBER

The ultra-events of October are in the USA. First, in Los Angeles, the American Uniform Association (AUA) will hold its annual review on 8-10, in conjunction with celebrations hosted by the B&B Corps and the Regiment of the Black and Tan. Same weekend, The National Leather Association will present Living in Leather VIII, city to be announced soon.

The exact date of the Annual General Meeting of the ECMC is uncertain (Oct. 1-3 or 8-10), but it will be hosted by Bournemouth Leather MSC in England. On the weekend of Oct. 15-17, you choose again: MSC London's twentieth anniversary celebration, or IMC Milano's 3rd International Meeting. On Oct. 22-24, it's LCNW Bremen's "Bremer Freimarkt." Then, Oct. 29 to Nov. 1, LMC Vienna hosts "Vienna in Black."

NOVEMBER

November, 1993, is pretty far away, so news is sparse, but a few things are sure. In Europe, for instance, The Rurals MC (England) will host a run called "Foxhunt," with foxes from all over the place hunting each other no doubt. And Leathermen Dusseldorf offers "Sternchen Party."

In the US, the big event is probably going to be the Mr. Leather New York weekend, almost surely including a Leatherfest sponsored by GMSMA and other not-yet-planned goings on. Chances are good that the weekend in New York will be held around November 12.

DECEMBER

Christmas parties are sure to be held everywhere, of course, and they are sure to be colored black and blue (rather than/as well as red and green) for many leathermen. The Jackaroos in Melbourne, Australia, may be the first to celebrate the holiday with their party slated for December 11.

The 15 Association in San Francisco has a Dungeon Party set for December 18, but they may add another, specifically Christmassy date before the end of 93 rolls around.

50 DRUMMER/159

HOW TO PLACE YOUR AD IN DEAR SIR:

We accept ads, and changes to ads, only in writing. Sorry, we cannot do this over the phone. Submit ads on the form on the facing page or a copy of it. If you can't bear to cut up your issue of Drummer, and can't make photocopies, send us a note and we'll mail you copies of the form.

Box Numbers: $5.00 buys you a Drummer mail box for the life of the ad. Even after your ad expires, we will continue to forward replies forever—as long as we keep getting letters. (So, keep us posted if you move.)

Phone numbers: You can put your phone number in your ad for immediate response. WE WILL ONLY PUBLISH VERIFIED PHONE NUMBERS. Here's how to put your number in your ad:

Mail in your ad. (Don't forget to include the $2.00 phone verification charge.) About two weeks after you mail the ad to us, you call us at (415) 252-1195, during business hours (10:00 am to 5:00 pm Pacific Time, Mon.-Fri.) Be at the phone number you are placing in your ad. We will call you back to verify the number. If we have not verified your number within three months, we will publish the ad with a box number instead of a phone number.

You only need to verify a phone number once. Once it has appeared in Drummer, just attach a copy of the printed ad to your new ad if you wish to use that telephone number again. We will not publish voice-mail service numbers in personal ads. Don't forget to include your area code.

What else? Put anything you want in your ad, except references to minors, animals, prostitution, or drugs.

Expect about a 60-day delay from the time we receive your ad to when it appears in print. Remember, it takes time for people to respond too. So, for example, if you're looking for Christmas presents, it would be smart to send us the ad at least 120 days before Christmas. Also remember replies by international mail may take longer than domestic mail.

HOW TO REPLY TO A DEAR SIR AD:

How to reply to a Drummer box number: Answering a Drummer box number is easy, but the few rules we have are hard and fast, so observe them or else. 1) Seal your letter in an envelope on which you have written the box number on the back flap in pencil. 2) Put your return address on the envelope if you wish the letter returned to you should there be some problem with delivery. 3) Put the proper postage on the envelope: domestic postage is 29 cents for the first ounce, and 23 cents for each additional ounce. Letters going to Canada and Mexico cost 40 cents for the first ounce, 23 cents for each additional ounce. Foreign overseas postage is 50 cents for the first half-ounce, 45 cents for the second half-ounce, and 39 cents for each additional half-ounce. 4) Put the sealed letter(s) and a buck ($1) forwarding fee for each letter in another envelope, and mail it to: DESMODUS, INC., P. O. Box 410390, San Francisco, CA 94141-0390. Letters not properly prepared will be destroyed.

Desmodus will forward responses to ads in back issues. However, we cannot guarantee that old addresses will still be valid. Remember, the US Postal Service can not return undelivered mail without your return address. Keep in mind that people do move, and their needs and desires do change.

JOIN THE LEATHER FRATERNITY

Membership has its privileges: a 12-issue subscription to Drummer and a free 10-line classified ad (as measured on the grid order form) in Drummer that runs for 12 issues. Leather Fraternity members also do not pay for a box number or pay forwarding fees when they write to Dear Sir box numbers. Members may change their ads up to three times (non-members may not). A Leather Fraternity box number for your ad is included in the $120 membership fee. And, from time to time, Leather Fraternity members are offered other benefits.

Add it up: A Drummer subscription costs $70. A 10-line personal ad running 12 times would cost $354. No mail forwarding fee? No box fee? So, even if you never use the forwarding service, you're saving at least $328.00 by joining the Leather Fraternity. Do it.

Just use the grid order form on the facing page. Your subscription will begin with the next issue we ship, and your ad will begin usually two issues after that (there is always a 60-day delay from the time we receive your ad, or a change to an ad, and when it appears in print).

FANTASY ONLY (nothing real except for archival photos of atrocities or execution and occasional factual essays.)

Stories written by and for college educated persons with active imaginations. If you are squeamish or cannot divorce fantasy from reality, please don't waste your time and ours. Our violent fantasies are for cathartic release of aggressive feelings and anger, such as those arising from frustration in dealing with clients or customers. If you have stories, essays, or drawings you would like to share, send them when you try us out. We ask all members of the Project to write stories about their own fantasies; this helps them become masters of their fantasy instead of slaves to it. No photos or drawings of persons under the age of 21. If you're looking for pix of kids, go to a psychiatrist before you get into trouble.

SPRING BREAK

Newcomer Christopher Valens is as sensual as he is beautiful. He had the good fortune to run into Cougar Cash, a man who knows how to handle nervous first-timers. Cougar demands and receives everything this slave boy can deliver. Color vid. 1hr.

CAUGHT

Rod, the tall, dark, handsome lad takes a hike. Deep in the woods he pauses to masturbate. As luck would have it he's caught red-handed. Taking charge of the lad, his captor leads him on a journey of submission, bondage, and ultimate slavery. Color vid. 1 hr.

IRON TITS

Butch and David set the standard for erotic bondage action. Being punished and tortured only makes Butch harder. David's big dick makes Butch insatiably hungry. David keeps the slave's dick taped off and requires him to service while tightly bound, titty clipped and gagged. Color vid. 1 hr.

PLUCKED

Steve Landess is not sure what he's getting into. Master Ken knows what he wants: Steve shaved smooth to service him. Plenty of serious rope bondage and domination await Steve as he is shaved down by stages. Color vid. 1 hr.

How to become a Tough Customer

Tough Customer photos are contributed by DRUMMER readers. You're a Tough Customer aren't you? You should send us a picture. Send a black and white photo (color is OK if the contrasts are sharp) with your name and address printed on the back, along with a statement that you are of legal age and you want to be published as a TC. You may give your address for publication, or we will assign you a TC Box number. In effect this is a free classified ad with your picture in it, so let us know what you want to say, too. We can't show penetration, and photos can not be returned. Mail to: Tough Customers, PO Box 410390, San Francisco, CA 94141-0390.

How to respond to a Tough Customer

If the TC you want to respond to has an address, respond directly to him at that address. If he has a box number, follow the instructions on page 47 of this magazine under "How To Reply To A Dear Sir Ad."

How to get a lot more Tough Customer pictures

We have published three special, all-TC magazines so far (with more to come.) You can order TC3 by sending $6.95 + $2.00 S/H to the address above. (TC1 and TC2 also available $6.95 each, $3.50 total S/H for all three) CA residents add 8.5% sales tax. Or call (415) 252-1195 with your credit card order.

Meet

“Peter of West Germany”...

who,
probably calls himself ‘Peter of Germany’ these days.

Anyway,
two things are obvious:
You can enjoy
peter and Peter
—East/West relations notwithstanding. And,

Peter is no pussy-cat.

A full-page photograph of a muscular man with short dark hair, looking directly at the camera. He is wearing a black leather harness with multiple straps and buckles across his chest and waist. He also wears a black leather choker, a black leather wristband on his right wrist, and a black leather thong with a dense covering of silver-colored studs. A green lizard is perched on his right shoulder, with a chain attached to its collar. The background is a mottled, earthy brown.
